IDEAS FOR SELLING:

In order to be a good salesperson, you need to have great communication skills. Here are a few tips:

1. Have a pen ready! (If not using the online option)
2. Have an envelope for money/checks. (If not using the online option)
3. Be sure to write down the customer phone number to help you contact them when their order arrives. (If not using the online option)
4. Be sure to tell them that the fruit will arrive before the holidays and would make a great gift!
5. Donations are always accepted! ($10 = item on the prize list)
6. Write a script to use for selling.
7. Write a letter to attach to an order form if your parents are helping you by taking it to their workplace. The letter should include who you are, who you are selling for, why you are selling, and how it will help the program.

All fruit is hand-packed locally. Fruit quality and price is dependent upon the weather in Florida, Washington, and New York. It can vary from year to year. Over the last 16 years, we have had very few problems. Many former band parents still call and order from us each year.
